Official Announcement of the Chinese Foreign Department at the Time Ambassadors Were Exchanged Between Japan and China.

(AKAMATSU; Sukeyuki: International Situation in 1935, 0.95)

It is a matter of congratulation that the governments of Japan and China have simultaneously elevated their mutual special envoys to the status of ambassadors, in the shortest time and through the simplest formalities, thereby being able to settle amicably the long-perding questions. At the same time, the Nationalist Government is deeply appreciative of the efforts and sincerity with which Foreign Minister HIROTA has made an epoch in improving the diplomate relations between the two countries.

Mr. A'IYOSHI, who was newly appointed Ambassador, has rendered such distinguished services to the diplomatic relations between the two countries in the past that his appointment is heartily welcomed by the Nationalist Government.

This document is an exact excerpt from my book, entitled "International Situation in 1935" (Page 95), published by the Japan International Association on June 14, 1936.
